COMMONLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What happens at the hearing?

The appeal of the decision of the planning commission is a new hearing and Council may make any decision with respect to the matter under appeal that could have been made at the original hearing.

Do I have to attend the hearing?

Your attendance at the Public Hearing is optional but only representation recorded through the appellant(s) and recorded in the Minutes will carry forward from previous hearings. You may make representation to City Council in writing by the deadline noted below.

Where can I get more information?

If you would like more information on this application, please call the City of Brandon Planning & Buildings Department at 204-729-2110 or planning@brandon.ca.

What if I have something to say but cannot attend the hearing?

Written representation may be made to the Office of the City Clerk at City Hall no later than Wednesday, October 14, 2026 (drop off or email cityclerk@brandon.ca). Please note that all correspondence received in conjunction with, or as a result of, an application that requires council approval becomes public information, therefore personal information [such as names, addresses etc.] contained in the correspondence may be released to the public domain.

What happens after the hearing?

Except as provided in section 118.2 of the Planning Act, the order of Council on an application for approval of a conditional use is final and not subject to appeal.
