Declaration of Eligibility and Statement of Confidentiality

I declare that I am a resident of the City of Niagara Falls. I have an injury, illness or disability that prevents me from visiting the library in person and/or carrying Library materials.

All information collected is for the purpose of ensuring customer eligibility for service, borrowing, and delivery service. I understand that this service is available to me because I am unable to visit or use Library facilities. My regular Library card will be suspended while I am in the Visiting Library Service program.

1. I authorize the Niagara Falls Public Library staff to check out library materials on my behalf and to keep a reading history of these materials to avoid duplication of titles
2. I am responsible for the safe return of all borrowed items
3. A fee may be charged to replace any lost or damaged material
4. A change of address/phone number must be reported to the Visiting Library Service
