Olds, Canada to host World Mixed Doubles Curling Championship 2028

The World Mixed Doubles Curling Championship 2028 will take place in Olds, Alberta, Canada, from January 8–15 2028.

The championship will bring together mixed doubles teams from around the world to compete for the world title

The Town of Olds and Olds Curling Club will work together as the Local Organising Committee to deliver the championship, welcome athletes, officials and spectators to the community in central Alberta.

World Curling Head of Competitions, Eeva Röthlisberger said: "We are delighted that Olds will host the World Mixed Doubles Curling Championship in 2028. We look forward to working with the local organizers to deliver a fantastic championship and welcoming the world's leading mixed doubles teams to Alberta."

Local Organizing Committee Co-Chair, Gary Gaudette said, "On behalf of the Olds committee, we are incredibly proud and excited to welcome the world to Olds and the surrounding community for the World Curling Mixed Doubles Championship in 2028.

"Hosting an international event of this calibre is a tremendous honour and an opportunity to showcase the warmth, hospitality, and community spirit that make Olds and central Alberta such a special place. We are excited to put Olds on the International stage and show everyone what makes our community so special."

Olds Mayor, Dan Daley said, "We are incredibly proud that Olds has been selected to host a World Curling event, and we look forward to welcoming athletes, officials and visitors from around the world to our community. Hosting an international competition of this calibre is a tremendous opportunity to showcase world-class curling, celebrate the spirit of the sport and put Olds on the world stage."

Further information about the championship, including participating teams and the competition schedule, will be announced closer to the event.
