The Proposed Zoning By-Law Amendment has been submitted by Wyoming Feed and Supply Limited (Brad Zantingh), acting as agent on behalf of the owners, Christopher Leystra and Herman Leystra, to amend the Town of Plympton-Wyoming Comprehensive Zoning By-law 97 of 2003. The subject property, municipally known as 5272 Egremont Road in the Town of Plympton-Wyoming, is undergoing the process of severing a Surplus Farm Dwelling. The applicant seeks to rezone the retained portion of land from the Agricultural-1 (A1) Zone to a No Dwelling Agricultural (ND-A) Zone to accommodate a future severance. The rezoning would include a site-specific provision to recognize a retained farm lot size of approximately 86 acres. As part of the Surplus Farm Dwelling process, outlined in Part 2, Section 2, Subsection 12, e) of the Town of Plympton-Wyoming Official Plan, the zoning of the retained parcel of farmland must prohibit any new residential uses in perpetuity to ensure the retained farmland continues to be used for agricultural purposes. The change to the No-Dwelling Agricultural (ND-A) Zoning meets this requirement.

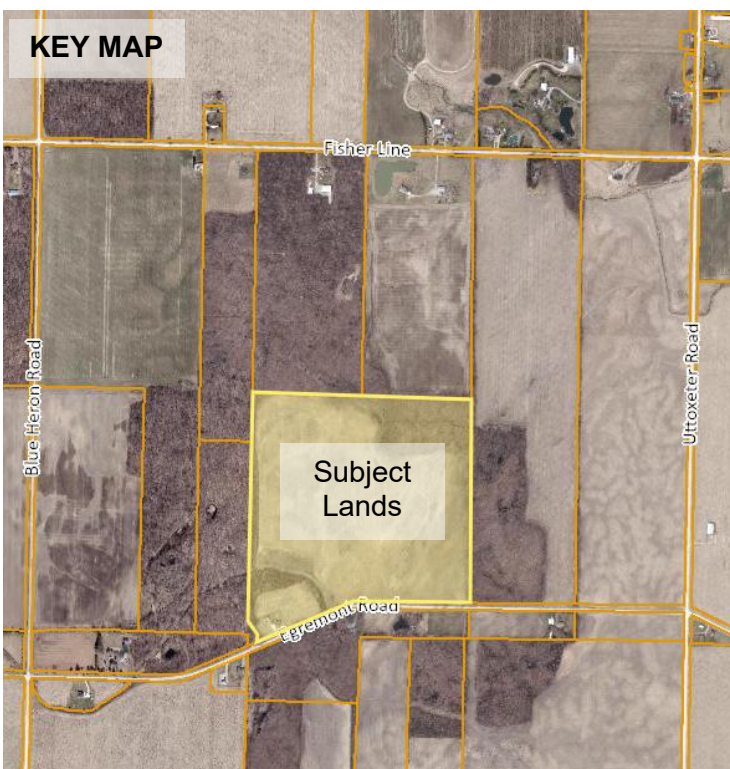

Any Person may attend the public meeting and/or make written or verbal representation either in support of, or in opposition to, the proposed Zoning By-law Amendment.

Written Submissions in respect of the proposed Zoning By-law Amendment can be made to the official listed below.

If A Person or public body does not make oral submissions at a public meeting or make written submissions to the Town of Plympton-Wyoming before the by-law is passed, the person or public body is not entitled to appeal the decision of the Town of Plympton-Wyoming to the Ontario Land Tribunal.

If A Person or public body does not make oral submissions at a public meeting or make written submissions to the Town of Plympton-Wyoming before the by-law is passed, the person or public body may not be added as a party to the hearing of an appeal before the Ontario Land Tribunal unless, in the opinion of the Tribunal, there are reasonable grounds to do so.
