Affordable Recreation Program (ARP)

Below is a list of the various subsidy programs available to Saugeen Shores and Bruce County residents to aid in making recreation more affordable for all.

Saugeen Shores Passes for Access (Pryde AWC)

The Passes for Access program is designed to reduce financial barriers and promote active living for adult and active age residents of Saugeen Shores. Eligible participants can receive 10-visit passes at up to 50% off the approved rate, with flexible payment options to support accessibility and inclusion.

- Available to Saugeen Shores residents who meet the Low-Income Cut-Off (LICO)
- Requires application form and proof of income for eligibility
- Offers flexible access options and payment plans
- Funded annually through the Town of Saugeen Shores Business Plan budget

Bruce County Child Activity Assistance Program (CAAP)

The Child Activity Assistance Program helps families with the cost of activities such as school trips, school nutrition programs, extra-curricular activities, recreation programs, arts and cultural programs, Scouts or Girl Guides up to $500 per child, per year.

Bruce County Child Care Fee Subsidy

Families in Bruce County with children aged 0 to 13 may qualify for help with child care costs. Depending on your income and situation, Bruce County may cover some or all of your fees.

Fee subsidy may cover costs for:

- Licensed child care centres and nursery schools
- Bruce County Licensed Home Child Care Program
- Before and After School Programs
- Authorized camps and recreation programs

Canadian Tire Jumpstart

The Canadian Tire Jumpstart program connects children from families in financial need to organized sports or programs (Minimum 5 classes / sessions) in their communities.

Families can receive up to $300 per child each year, depending on availability of local Jumpstart chapter funding.

To see if a family qualifies, Jumpstart looks at their income using LICO (Low Income Cut-Off). Families will need to share their Canada Child Benefit (CCB) information, financial information, and complete a Jumpstart funding application. Jumpstart works closely with families to make the process as easy as possible.

Fill the Program - Town of Saugeen Shores Recreation Programs

The Town of Saugeen Shores 'Fill the Program' initiative provides financial assistance to families who wish to enroll their children in swimming lessons by allowing families in need to access unfilled classes.

You can add your child to the 'Fill the Program' list by contacting the Recreation Division or registering online by searching 'Fill the Program'. If space is available in the appropriate swim level after the second class of the session, 'Fill the Program' participants will be invited to join at no cost.

You are not required to show proof of income to sign up. Participants will be contacted on a first-come, first-served basis.

Saugeen Recreation Sport Assistance Fund (SRSAF)

The Saugeen Recreation Sport Assistance Fund is available to Saugeen First Nation Residents only. The Assistance Fund can assist Saugeen First Nations children / youth in accessing funding for registered sports, programs, or Pryde AWC memberships.

Program funding varies based on program and registration type.
